Print-On-Demand Simple Steps To Get Started

Sell T-Shirts, Fitness Wear, Trending Fashions & More With Dropshipping & Print on Demand. Customize Your Own Design or Find Clothing Styles for Your Online Store. How To Start Print On Demand Business In 7 Steps!

1. Choose your niche

Your print-on-demand business can't be all things to all people. That's why the first step is choosing the right niche for your business.

A niche may include people in a certain profession (like nurses or teachers), folks who share a particular passion (like foodies or yoga enthusiasts), or people who participate in shared activities (like cyclists or pet owners).

You'll want to be as specific as possible about your niche, while still reaching an audience that's wide enough to let you earn profits. For example, you may want to sell to wine enthusiasts. But rather than targeting everyone over the age of 21 in the U.S., you may hone in on millennial moms who enjoy wine. This will help you to better define products, styles, and campaigns that speak directly to your buyers.

2. Select your print or demand products

There's a chance that you landed on this blog with a certain product, like t-shirts, in mind. But POD platforms will give you access to a plethora of other items: hoodies, leggings, caps, water bottles, or smartphone cases (just to name a few).

It goes without saying that the products you choose should be tightly aligned with your niche. If you're targeting people who enjoy yoga and meditation, your product line may include full-print yoga pants, mats, and towels. If you're creating products that appeal to beach lovers, you may choose to put your designs on beach chairs, blankets, and swimwear.

3. Create your design

This step can either be the most exhilarating or intimidating part of your journey, depending on your comfort level with design. If you were born with a gift for design, then starting a POD business can help you share your passion and give you an avenue to make money as an artist.

If you're not an artist or graphic designer, there are other ways that you can close the "design gap." You could, for example, choose from premade designs, images, and fonts within your POD platform. Or, use a design tool like DesignWizard or Piktochart to spark your creative juices.

If you're struggling to find some artistic inspiration, look at popular designs that are already selling well on marketplaces or other sites. But be careful not to copy them. Avoid trademark infringement and other thorny legal issues by studying intellectual property for print on demand.

4. Choose the right print-on-demand service

When it comes to picking the right printer for your designs, make sure to consider the following questions:

- What type of products does the platform offer?
- What kind of equipment, materials, and printing techniques do they use?
- What are their average turnaround times?
- Where do they ship your products from, and how are shipping rates calculated?
- What type of packaging will be used?
- Do they charge a monthly fee and/or a percentage of each sale?
- How are returns, cancellations, and refunds handled?
- Does the platform integrate with your eCommerce platform?

Check out online reviews to see what other online merchants are saying about their services.

Also, order a sample of your products so that you can evaluate product quality.

5. Build your online store

Start selling your products in one of two popular ways:

- Sell on a marketplace like Amazon, Etsy or eBay: Marketplaces offer large, established audiences that are already eager to buy. That said, marketplaces may charge subscription fees, listing fees, and/or transaction fees. They each have their own rules regarding branding, pricing, and listing products too, so you'll need to familiarize yourself with these to avoid any hiccups.
- Build your own website using eCommerce platform. This approach offers you the most freedom; you can design your store exactly how you want and stay in control of the entire buyer experience.

Check that the colors, materials, and texture meet your expectations. It's possible for some designs to look better on a computer screen than in person. This step is therefore crucial for making sure that your design actually looks good when paired with the fabrics, ink, and printer that you choose.

There are several well-known print on demand companies that you can choose from, including Mondalyst, Printify and Printful.

6. Set the right pricing strategies

Finding the sweet spot in terms of pricing can be a challenge. But here are a few questions that you can ask yourself to get to the right answer:

- What are my startup costs? Make sure that your pricing accounts for all of your expenses, including your marketing, labor, fees, and other costs.
- What are other businesses charging for their products? It goes without saying that you'll want to price competitively or have a strategy for justifying higher price points.
- How unique are my products? As noted above, you may be able to charge more for your products if they're one-of-a-kind.
- Will I offer free shipping to my customers? More than half (58%) of shoppers abandon their carts due to higher-than-expected shipping costs, so offering free shipping may be a good idea—given that it doesn't kill your margins. There are various ways to offer fast and free shipping, whether that means folding it into the product price or offering free shipping at certain price points.
- What will my profit margin be at this price? When all is said and done, you, of course, will want to make sure that you're making money from every sale. Make sure that you calculate your profit margins accurately, taking into account all expenses and "hidden" costs (think: returns, taxes, transaction fees, etc.).

7. Develop a marketing plan

Your work doesn't end once your online store goes live. To build a successful print-on-demand business, you'll need to proactively drive attention to your products. Here are five great ways to start building an audience and creating positive buzz around your business:

- Tell your friends and family members: All about your business and encourage them to share your products with their networks.
- Engage with buyers on social media: Invest in learning the ins and outs of channels that are most strategic for your brand. Join in on relevant conversations and express your brand's personality online.
- Start a blog: Publish articles that showcase various ways to use your product and/or simply addresses questions people might have when searching for a brand like yours. A blog can help you to expand your SEO strategy and reach consumers organically.
- Partner with influencers: Collaborate with influencers or other brands that target similar audiences as you. Be sure to offer something in return and to lean on their areas of expertise.
- Create an email strategy: Plot out the emails you'd like to send, whether you're looking to re-engage shoppers, reduce abandoned carts, or generate buzz around upcoming sales.

Earn $50 & 50 Stamps That Double To Infinity!
RECEIVE $10,000 IN CA$H AND 10,000 IN STAMPS PER WEEK!

THE POWER OF COMPOUNDING

How Would You Like To Turn $50 & 50 Stamps Into $200 & 200 stamps, Then Into $400 & 400 stamps, Then Into $800 & 800 stamps, Then Into $1,600 & 1,600 stamps, Then Into $3,200 & 3,200 stamps, Then Into $6,400 & 6,400 stamps. — This GOES TO INFINITY...ON AND ON! The first 2 people you enroll goes to Your Sponsor (don't worry you are about to start your Own endless $50 Cash & 50 Stamps that will double and keep on Doubling to Infinity). Starting with your third person you earn $50 Cash & 50 Stamps! Here's where Your money double...The third Person you enroll must give their first 2 Enrollees = $100 Cash & 100 stamps and those must give you their first 2 x 2 = 4 x $50 Cash & 50 Stamps = $200 Cash and 200 Stamps paid to You. This doubling continues… 4 do the same to get 8 x $50 Cash = $400 Cash & 400 Stamps. Then 8 bring 16 = 16 x $50 Cash & 50 Stamps = $800 Cash & 800 Stamps, then 16 bring 32 = 32 x $50 Cash & 50 Stamps = $1,600 Cash & 1,600 Stamps, then 32 bring 64 = 64 x $50 Cash & 50 Stamps = $3,200 Cash & 3,200 Stamps.

THEN 64 bring 128 x $50 Cash & 50 Stamps = $6,400 Cash & 6,400 Stamps, this goes on to Infinity. This doubling Starts with your third person. Get 4, 5 or 6 and you are doubling into thousands in cash per week.
